TO OUR EXCHANGES.

We are much obliged to our brethren of the press for the many flattering notices which they have bestowed upon the Intelligencer, and will be still more obliged to such as have received our first is sues if they will forward us their papers immediately. We are still deficient in some valuable ex changes.

West, the negro spoken of in connecticu with the affair at Lutz's tavern, was brought before Alderman McConnell yesterday, and the evidence not being sufficient to authorize a final commitment, he was discharged. The enactment requiring free negroes to leave the State whenever they are brought before a Magistrate, was the only penalty which could be inflicted. It would appear from the evidence that the affair did not amount to much, his own terrified appearance and hasty retreat from the officers, caused an excitement among the boys, and, of course, raised a mad-dog cry at his

It is very rarely that we are called upon to record any offence against the 'peace and dignity of the Commonwealth' by the negro population of this city. Whenever they abuse the indulgence extended to them, we advise them to pick up their 'duds' and travel.

CITY BRASS BAND .- We are gratified to announce, as we are sure the lovers of good music will be to hear, that the City Brass Band, which has been for some time under the tuition of their leader. Nr J. L. Ruhl, have acceded to the request of many of our citizens, and consented to play a few of the r 11 mes this evening at 74 o'clock in front of the McLuie House. Few things serve more to disper the depression and vexations which flesh is heir to. especially in a city, than the enlivening and refining influence of music. Our musical Bands, in thus contributing to the enjoyment of our citizens, deserve both our thanks and 'material aid.'

THE NEWS of the passage of the Wheeling bridge bill was very late in reaching the Pittsburghers. their papers of yesterday morning containing the first announcement of the news which we issued in an extra last Sunday. This, of course, was some delay unusual to the smoky city, so famed for the promptness and fidelity of its Telegraphic communications, for we cannot think our neighbors up that nications, for we cannot think our neighbors up that nice to see the see that nice to see the see that nice to see the see that nice to see that nice to see that nice to see that nice to see that nice the see that nice to see that nice to see that nice way so silly as to endeavor to lay an injunction upon the news.

THE WHEELING MANUFACTURERS' AND FARMERS' INSTITUTE, is the title of a new society for the encouragement of Manufactures and Agriculture in this ciry and county, projected by some enterpris ing gentlemen who are now soliciting subscriptions to establish it upon a permanent basis. Annual exhibitions are contemplated. As a means of fostering our mechanics and farmers, it deserves the ntmost encouragement.

'MARY SEAHAM,' a new Novel by Mrs. Gray, has been received at J. H. McMechen's Literary De-Por, in the new Hotel buildings. The editors of the London Atheneum say it is an agreeable, elegantly written story, and we expect they know as much about it as we do. As this is the first occasion we have had to notice our friend Mr. H. since the enlargement and improvement of his Depot, we will say to our readers 3 BBLS. THE above institution is now open for the reception of patients. It is located about five miles from the city, on the Carlinge pike, and but a new rods from the Hamilton, Chacimati and Daytom Railroad, in the rear and at the same distance from the Miami Canal, in the front, tendering it easy of access to those desirons o, enjoying the benefits of the Institution.

To the lover on nature, jew parts of the country can fornish a more pleasing variety of scene y than spreads itself belove the traveller all the way from Cincinnati to the Curc. The enature and art combine, rendering the view beautiful beyond description.

The new, is ge, and beautiful Edifice displays the taste of the a stist at a glance. The neatness and expance of the interior, combined with the numerous attractions which present themselves to the invalid, cannot fail to render this Establishie end a dearrible one. The Halis are extensive, the Rooms spachous and inviting, where the invalid can range at pleasure, fee from atmospheric influences, in inclement weather. The field Rooms are ample and commodious, being convenent for the application of water, in every form. In connection with the Institution there is a Gymnasium Hall, seventy-five test long, where patients will have an opportunity of restoring facir muscular strength by healtiful exercise. The Springs which furnish the water for this establishment, are clear, pure, soft and abundant flowing from a gravelly heal, they send forth water both cold and delicious. The country and neighborhood are temarkable for healthfulness, purity of air, and variety of scene y. All things combined, we cannot flink of a more desirable place, for those seeking health, than this Institution.

The first objects of the Review are of course political; tis designed to set forth and defend the principles, the tensures, and the men of the United Whig Party of the Junion. It has been a matter of just reproach to that Party hat though it embraces its due proportion of the intelligence and learning of the country, It has no Quarterly or donthly Organ devoted to the expression and decruse of ts opinions and measures. The conductors of the Amerian Review have done what in them lies to remove this eproach, by securing contributions from sources of ability not truth.
